Alexandria Little League

Senior League

ALL will not offer Senior League in 2004. Players to age 15 are eligible to play Junior League.

Junior League (ages 13 - 15)

Junior League play is on the regulation 90 ft. diamond. All new players at this level must try out to guarantee team placement. Returning players are not required to try-out. An all-star team (players ages 13-14 are eligible for Junior League All Stars) is selected near the end of the season for the Little League Virginia State Tournament.

Majors Division I (ages 10 - 12)

All players (except returning Majors I players) MUST attend a tryout for evaluation or they CANNOT play at this level. They will be evaluated on their ability in batting, throwing, catching and running and placed on a team through a draft process. Players for each team will be drafted citywide (not by school districts). A limited number of exceptional 10 year-old players may be drafted for this league. An all-star team will be selected at the end of the season to play in a District 4 post-season tournament, in which the winners progress to the state championship, and continue to the Little League World Series in Williamsport, Pennsylvania.

Majors Division II (ages 9 - 12)

All players must tryout to guarantee team placement. Players for each team will be drafted citywide (not by school districts). Most 10 year-old players and all 11 and 12 year-old players will play in either Majors Division I or Majors Division II. If your nine year-old can hit a pitched ball well, can throw 60 feet, can catch consistently, and has a good knowledge of the game, he or she may be ready for Majors Division II. Keep in mind that real hardball baseballs are used at this level and that your child must be comfortable facing a pitcher and be able to catch a ball. If your child is 9 or 10 years-old, but has had limited baseball experience or still has trouble hitting, catching or throwing, the Minors AA may be the appropriate league. The final decision on league placement rests with the Alexandria Little League. Virginia District 4 Little League will host a 9/10 year-old all-star tournament.

Minors AA (ages 8 - 10)

This is the first level of Alexandria Little League. Teams will be formed based on neighborhoods and on assuring competitive balance in forming team rosters. Kid pitching is introduced at this level and a slightly softer RIF (reduced injury factor) baseball is used. This level will be composed of mostly 9 year-olds and 9 year-old players are anticipated to play at this level. If your eight year-old child can hit a pitched ball, can throw accurately 40 feet, can catch consistently, and has a good knowledge of the game, he or she may be ready for Minors AA. The final decision as to whether an 8 year-old can play at this level rests with Alexandria Little League. If your child is ten but has little experience or still has significant trouble hitting, catching or throwing, Minors AA may be the correct level at which to play.

Minors A (ages 7 - 8) (Coach Pitch)

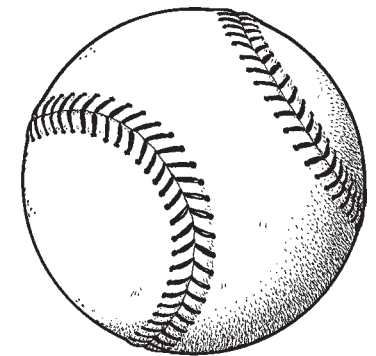

This league is commonly known as "coach pitch." Teams are formed each year by the City on a neighborhood basis as much as possible. Nine players are in the field, including a "pitcher" and a catcher with equipment. The coach pitches to the team. A slightly softer RIF ball is used. Unless a 9 year-old significantly lags peers in hitting, catching or throwing, it is recommended that the child play at the AA level.

Tee Ball (ages 6 - 7)

Teams will be formed on a neighborhood basis as much as possible. This level is an introduction to baseball where your child learns the basics. Nine players are in the field with the 'catcher' standing to the side of home plate. A soft safety ball is hit from a tee.
